Second Auditor,
Richmond, Va.

Sir,

Accompanying this you will find the account and [redacted] horses which were lost in action by my company on the night of July 4th 1863. Many of the men whose horses were taken are poor and unable to purchase others unless government pays for those that were lost. It is absolutely necessary for the good of the service that those men be furnished with horses immediately or with the means of paying for them. I trust that you will see the necessity of my pressing this matter on your attention, and that you will give me an answer as early as possible.

Very Respectfully &c.

The 7th Regiment Confederate Cavalry (also known as the 7th and as Clanton's Regiment Confederate Cavalry) was organized September 10, 1862, at Columbus, Georgia, by consolidation of twelve companies of Alabama and Georgia troops. Companies A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, K, L, and M were recruited in Alabama and were mustered into Confederate service as companies of the Alabama Regiment of Cavalry. The regiment was designated as Clanton's Regiment of Alabama Cavalry, and on October 9, 1862, was assigned to Brigadier General James H. Clanton's Brigade of Cavalry. On October 20, 1862, the regiment was designated as the 7th Regiment Confederate Cavalry, and companies A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, K, L, and M were designated as companies A to M, respectively. The regiment was assigned to Brigadier General James H. Clanton's Brigade of Cavalry, Army of Tennessee, and participated in the Battle of Chickamauga, September 19-20, 1863. Companies A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, K, L, and M were consolidated with the 3rd Regiment Confederate Cavalry as companies A to M, respectively, of the 3rd Regiment Confederate Cavalry.

Sometime in July or August last, an application was sent from Head Qrs 16th V.S. Cavalry Regiment asking that Cadet Wm. D. Mathews obtain the Appointment of 1st Lieutenant in that Regiment, accompanied by many of Certificates by Junior officers of the said Company. The 7th V.S. Cav is now merged into this Regiment. I, therefore, respectfully urge that such Appointment be made. Company H. is now without Commissioned Officers. One of its Lieutenants has resigned and the other is seriously wounded. Lieut Mathews is a gallant officer and distinguished himself in the battle at Burgess Mill on the 27th October last by wresting a gun with the assistance of Capt Hampton, after all his gunners were driven away.

Very Respectfully

Remarks:

The 7th Regiment Confederate Cavalry was known as the 7th and 24th Cavalry. The Regiment was organized September 1862 as the 7th Partisan Ranger Regiment. It was composed of companies A to M, and was shortly thereafter consolidated with the 24th Battalion Partisan Rangers, which had been organized in May 1862, and was composed of companies A, B, C, D, E and F. By consolidation the companies of the 7th Regiment became companies A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, K, L and M. The 24th Battalion Partisan Rangers became companies A and B. The consolidated Regiment was designated the 7th Confederate Cavalry. It was dropped from the rolls of the Confederate Army by S. O. No. 161 A. & I. G. O. dated July 11 1864 and reported by S. O. No. 161 A. & I. G. O. dated July 11 1864 and reported by S. O. No. 161 A. & I. G. O. dated July 11 1864 as companies A to K, inclusive, of the 7th Regiment Confederate Cavalry. Companies A to D, and I, K, L and M of the 7th Regiment and companies E, F, G, H, I and M of the 24th Battalion South Carolina Cavalry are companies A to M, respectively of the 7th Regiment South Carolina Cavalry as companies A to D, E, F, G, H, I, K, L and M respectively.

Sir

Will you be so kind as to inform me if horses captured by the enemy belonging to my Company in the engagement of June 21st 1864 will be paid for. Owing to the usual kinds of duties performed by the Company it was impracticable to have the horses appraised. Inform me how I shall arrive at their valuation and the collection of the same.

There was one horse captured December 1862 also one May 1863 inform me if these two can be paid for. Respectfully your obt Servt
